KENTUCKY NEWSLETS

Tobacco Activity at Henderson.
Henderson, Ky., Nov. 29.—The first activity of the season on the local tobacco market was manifested when John H. Hodge, an independent buyer, offered $8.82 for a fair crop of tobacco. This offer was rejected by the grower, who demanded $9.72. Some tobacco has been sold, but the trust and independent buyers decline to give out any prices for publication.

Deaths in Graves.
Mayfield, Ky., Nov. 29.—Mrs. Kate Blackburn died of consumption. She was about 34 years of age.

Mr. Dock Campbell, an aged man died at the home of his daughter, Mrs.

Jim Bumpus. He took a dose of corrosive sublimate through mistake about a week ago, and this caused death. His remains were buried at Duke-don.

Federal Court at Owensboro.
Owensboro, Ky., Nov. 29.—The November term of the federal court met, transacted a great amount of business and adjourned in one day. The case in which there was a great deal of interest was that of Henry Morton, a well known Owensboro boy, charged with removing money from letters in the local postoffice, and occupied only ten minutes' time. Morton pleaded guilty to two of the three counts in the indictment. He was fined $500 and sentenced to the county jail for six months on each of the two counts. The $1,000 was immediately paid, and Judge Evans announced that he could serve both terms concurrently. It was also ordered that he pay back the money removed from letters.

Eighteen men were fined and given jail sentences for selling liquor without a special government tax. Richard Brown was fined $500 and given eight months in jail for running an illicit distillery. He lives in Grayson county.

Suit Against the Post Dropped.
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 29.—The suit of Pat Sharkey against the Evening Post for $40,000 damages was dismissed without prejudice on motion of the plaintiff's attorneys. It was based on severe criticisms of Sharkey's saloon published in the Post. In a criminal action last February Editor R. W. Knott and the paper were fined $500 for libel, but the verdict caused so much adverse criticism that the civil suit was not pushed.

Child Dies at Central City.
Central City, Ky., Nov. 29.—Lucy, the interesting seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hocker, of South Carrollton, died after a short illness of brain fever. Mrs. John Whitmer, an aunt of the child, is critically ill, as the result of the shock of the death of the little one.

THE COUNCIL
Made the Board of Works' Act Its Own, Says the Court of Appeals.

The recent decision of the appellate court declaring valid street improvement ordinances of Paducah, is as follows:

"City of Paducah, Petitioner. Ex Parte—Filed November 15, 1905. (Not to be reported.) Appeal from McCracken Circuit Court. Opinion of the court by Judge Nunn, affirming.

"Ordinances—Street Construction—An ordinance authorizing the paving of streets in appellant city is not invalid where the board of public works was only given power to investigate and report to the city council for its approval as to the material to be used in street construction. When the council adopted the board's report and directed the use of the material the act of the board became the act of the council.

"James Campbell, Jr., for petitioner."

NUMBER OF DEATHS IS NOW NINETEEN

This Has Been a Sanguinary Season.

Sixty-Eight Recorded Deaths From Football in the Past Few Seasons.

ABOUT 500, IN ALL, INJURED.

Sedalia, Mo., Nov. 29.—Robert Brown, sixteen years old, who was injured in a football game here Saturday between local elevens, is dead. Brown was paralyzed from the neck down and rendered unconscious.

New York, Nov. 29.—The World says:

All records for football brutality were smashed during the season just closed.

Nineteen lives were sacrificed, exceeding by six the black record of 1903, while the number of casualties greatly surpassed that of any previous year. The list of dead appears elsewhere.

Here are the football fatalities in the last thirteen years:

Year.	Deaths.
1893.	8
1894.	7
1895.	4
1896.	9
1897.	10
1898.	8
1899.	11
1890.	4
1891.	9
1902.	12
1903.	13
1904.	11
1905.	19

The causes of death this year were as follows:

Concussion of brain.	5
Internal injuries.	4
Fracture of skull.	4
Paralysis.	2
Blood poisoning.	1
Acute peritonitis.	1
Spinal meningitis.	1
Heart puncture.	1

Total, . . . . . 19

Sixty-eight recorded deaths is the list of football fatalities so far for the Twentieth century. Exclusive of the present season, 539 wearers of moleskin have received injuries on the field, more or less severe. The fatalities recorded are those that occurred during the season, but in many instances death has followed after months of suffering from injuries. For the last four seasons the casualty list, as compiled from the reports in the newspaper files, is as follows:

Year.	Deaths.	Injured.
1901.	7	74
1902.	15	106
1903.	14	63
1904.	13	296

TAKING INVENTORY.

Of the Stock in the I. C. Storehouse.

Attaches of the local I. C. store-room department, are taking the regular winter inventory of stock on hand so that a requisition can be intelligently made for the coming quarter.

The store house stock is always in demand and the continual drain makes it necessary that the attaches make an inventory several times a year in order to keep up. The local I. C. storehouse is one of the best regulated on the system.

$5,000 BLAZE

FARMINGTON, GRAVES COUNTY,
VISITED BY A CONFLAGRATION.

W. T. Adair & Son Lose Their Big Store—Coffin Shop Also Destroyed.

Mayfield, Ky., Nov. 29.—Farmington was visited by a disastrous fire Monday night, and a vacancy is left in the heart of the little city.

About midnight the large frame merchandise store of W. T. Adair & Son was discovered to be on fire, and almost before the town was awake the building was in ashes. The stock consisted of dry goods and clothing and was a total loss, amounting $5,000.

On the stock there was an insurance of $4,100.

The building belonged to Ed. Colley and was valued at $1,500 with an insurance of $900.

The coffin shop of Herman Evans, adjoining this property also burned. The stock was valued at $500 with no insurance. The building was owned by Tobe Wilson, and he carried $300 insurance.

It is not known how the fire started. The wind was blowing hard and the fire did its work very speedily.

Many people in Mayfield were aroused Monday night about one o'clock by a fire alarm. The wagon made the run toward the water works, but finding the light of the fire to be far removed from the city limits the boys returned.

A message from Pryorsburg was later that the blaze came from an old broomshed field near Clay Switch.
